Boy Is Killed In Crash of Auto, Bicycle

Ronald Gix, 11, Dies Instantly in Collision Near Prospect Home

Eleven-year-old Ronald Gix, son of Mrs. Harold Gix of Prospect, was killed instantly Monday night when his bicycle collided head-on with a car on State Route 47, near his home.

He was Marion County's 11th traffic fatality this year. The bike crashed into the front of a car driven by Donald Sipe, 20, of Waldo, about two-tenths of a mile east of Prospect at 8:30 p.m. Monday. The boy's head was severed from his body when the bike was smashed against the oncoming car.

Ronald and his twin brother, Donald, were going home on their bicycles when the crash occurred. They were riding east along the highway, patrolmen from the Marion post said, just before Ronald's bicycle crashed into the front of the westbound car. The crash took place in the traffic lane in which Sipe was traveling, patrolmen said.

Following the collision with the bicycle, Sipe's car went out of control and crashed into a tree. There was extensive damage to the grill, bumper, hood and entire front end of the car. A wrecker from Prospect was called.

Marion County acting coroner, Dr. Robert T. Gray, was at the accident scene by the time state patrolmen arrived, and viewed the body. It was taken to the Gehm Funeral Home in Prospect.

Investigation of the accident is incomplete.

Birthdate of Ronald Joseph Gix was Dec. 23, 1941, and birthplace, Marion. He was one of twin sons born to Harold and Ruth Gix, and he was enrolled for sixth grade at the Prospect School. Also at Prospect he was a member of the 4-H Club and of the Methodist Sunday School.

Surviving with his mother and his twin brother are another brother, Harold Richard, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McHaffey of Prospect and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gix of Columbus.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday at 2:30 p.m. in the Methodist Church in Prospect. Burial will be in Prospect Cemetery. Friends may call at the Gehm Funeral Home in Prospect from 8 tonight until 10, then until 1 p.m. Thursday.

Four no-injury accidents were investigated by city police and state highway patrolmen from Marion Monday afternoon and early today.

At 3:15 a.m. today on U. S. 23, a half-mile north of Route 231 at Brush Ridge, a car and a second auto which was being towed were involved in a minor mishap investigated by the patrol. Driver of the car was John T. Denton, 18, of Panama City Bay, Fla. The tow bar came loose from one side of the car which was being towed, causing both vehicles to swerve on the road and skid to a cross-wise position on the highway. The second car stopped in a ditch on the left side of the road. Denton escaped uninjured.

Three minor accidents were reported this morning by police. All happened Monday afternoon.

At 3:45, the car driven by Mrs. Dorothy M. Stewart of 305 Fies Ave was damaged in the left front and side when hit by another car as she attempted to turn left from Silver St. onto Mary St. Driver of the other car was Mason B. Milbee, 48, of 450 Lee St. The right front and side of his car were damaged.

At 2:53 p.m., a car driven by William J. Bender, 28, of the Veterans' Housing Project, was damaged in a collision with a car driven by Arthur J. Duffy, 55, of Columbus. Duffy's car was also damaged. The collision occurred at N. Main and Center Sts.

Two trucks involved in an accident at the intersection of E. Center and Barnhart Sts. were damaged. They were driven by Donald O. Creasap, 36, of 564 Universal Ave., and Glen E. Miley, 17, of 715 E. Mark St.

Rail Workers Walk Out as Reds Begin New French Strike

PARIS (U. S. — Rail traffic was snarled throughout France today as a new Communist-ordered transport strike began to creep across the nation. Once more the workers fought Premier Joseph Laniel's economy decrees.

Other walkouts threatened and it appeared that France faced a second gigantic tieup like that last week when two million workers in state and municipal services and government-run industries quit their jobs.

The new tieup was launched by the Communist-led CGT National Confederation of Labor which called its 270,000-member railwaymen off their jobs. The non-Communist Socialist Workers' Forces (FO) went along on the walkout.

Most of last week's walkouts were for 24 to 48 hours. This time no limit was set by the CGT. The FO and the Christian Trade Federation (CFTC) control the rest of the country's 440,000 railway workers. Thus far, there was no indication what the CFTC would do.

The CGT said the aims of the strike were higher salaries and an all-out war on the government decrees, which it described as hitting at the privileges and social benefits of civil servants.

In Paris, many of the big train terminals were closed, including St. Lazare, the main station for suburban lines. Some terminals were open but had no trains operating.

There also were indications that the strike would spread to the city's subway and bus system during the day.

Reports from throughout the country indicated that the strike was increasing in effectiveness as the day wore on. Near Limoges, in southwestern France, 15 trains carrying 15,000 persons were blocked and welfare services hurried to round up food for children among the stranded passengers.

The last three trains that left Clermont-Ferrand in south-central France also were blocked en route. Through trains were halted at Bordeaux. In Le Havre—port city for transatlantic liners—the walkout was reported to have completely shut down transport.

A new, large-scale strike in the government-run gas and electricity industries was also feared. It already had begun in Nice, on the vacation-crowded Riviera.

The nationwide postal, telephone and telegraph (PTT) tieup was in its seventh day. The lack of mail service, crippling business and commercial transactions, was expected soon to force many industrial establishments to close.

Mayor Offers Three Plans Of Obtaining City Building

Traffic Plan Defeated by City Council

Proposal To Reroute Trucks Rejected 8-1; Levy Placed on Ballot

A proposal to send Route 4 truck traffic over an alternate route through Marion was soundly defeated by City Council—at its meeting last night.

The plan, contained in a proposed ordinance, was to send trucks north over Prospect St. from W. Columbia St. to E. George St. then east to N. Main St.

Idea behind the plan was to eliminate the turning of the heavy trucks at S. Prospect and W. Columbia Sts. It was objected to by Police Chief Tom Coon and Mayor Harold Robinson because of the added congestion it would cause at Prospect and W. Center Sts.

The ordinance was read to Council for the third time last night. The vote on adoption was 8-1 against it, with only Second Ward Councilman James C. Jenkins voting in favor of it.

Levy Paced on Ballot

In other action at last night's meeting Council:

1. Authorized the placing of a three-fourths mill tax levy for operation of the new sewage disposal plant on the ballot in November.

2. Authorized the safety-service director to advertise for bids for purchase of a one-half cubic yard power shovel for use in the service department.

3. Passed an ordinance authorizing the sale of copies of the new city code at a price of $12.50 each.

4. Approved transfer of $422 in the City Recreation Fund to permit the Recreation Commission to purchase playground equipment for use at Lincoln Park.

5. Made additional appropriation of $1,600 from the gasoline tax fund to pay cost of five new school-hour traffic lights, installation of which was approved at previous Council meetings.

6. Tabled an ordinance which would set the fee for taxicab driver's licenses as required under the new city code.

Charter Action Delayed

7. Delayed action on an ordinance calling for placing the question "Shall a commission be formed to frame a city charter?" until Council's next meeting Aug. 24.

8. Authorized the Ohio Edison Co. to install four new street lights in Oakland Heights.

9. Approved signing of a renewal contract with D. A. Brown for the maintenance of police and fire departments radio equipment at a cost to the city of $12 per month for each piece of equipment or a total of about $85 a month.

10. Appropriated $100 from the general fund to pay expenses of Police Chief Tom Coon to attend the 60th Annual Conference of International Association of Chiefs of Police at Detroit Sept. 13 through 17.

11. Designated National City Bank as depository for $600,000 of city funds, and the Marion County Bank as depository for $300,000 for two years.

12. Paid a $24 claim to City Fireman Loran D. Bailey for damage to his uniform while fighting the Wilson Furniture Co. fire early in June.

13. Paid a $10 claim to Joseph L. Siegler for damage to his car which was struck by a city-owned truck while parked on Bellefontaine Ave.

Anti-Noise Ordinance

14. Discussed the possibility of establishing an anti-noise ordinance to force truckers to place more efficient mufflers on their trucks.

15. Sent an ordinance concerning licensing and regulations of house trailers to committee for further study.

16. Sent to committee a letter from attorneys representing W. W. Woodruff offering dedication of 21 feet of land fronting on E. Church St. in the 500 block for use as a street to be called Woodruff Ct.

17. Received a report from City Engineer Tom Cathers suggesting increases in assessments for a to-

Sen. McCarthy Hunting Reds In Top Echelon

Closed-Door Probe Continues; Says Vital Secrets Are Involved

WASHINGTON (U. S. — Keeping details to himself, Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) called another closed-door inquiry today into allegations that a Communist party member in the government has access to closely guarded atomic and military secrets.

Just as yesterday, when the investigation began unannounced, there was no word as to what witnesses, if any, were summoned. All McCarthy would say was that a public session would be held later in the week if enough facts are developed today and tomorrow.

After two hours of testimony from four unnamed witnesses yesterday, McCarthy said that if the evidence taken by his Senate investigations subcommittee proves true:

"A member of the Communist party has access to secret material of the military, Atomic Energy Commission and Central Intelligence Agency."

He avoided any implication that the employee in question works in any one of the three agencies.

Authoritative sources later reported that the alleged Communist works for the Government Printing Office. But this report could not be confirmed. An employee in the government printing office conceivably could obtain access to material from such scattered agencies as the Pentagon, AEC and CIA, although it was not clear how or why secret material would be so widely disseminated as to require printing.

Disabled POW's Land in Honolulu

HONOLULU (U. S. — A big transport plane carrying 17 sick and weary Americans released by the Communists only a few days ago landed here last night on a flight across the Pacific from Japan.

The Army said the group included 14 men suffering from tuberculosis contracted in Red captivity and three psychiatric cases.

Earlier there had been contradictory reports that the plane might carry more than 17 passengers and that some prisoners suspected of having been indoctrinated by the Reds were aboard. This apparently was not the case, however.

Marion Vets Home Put On Sale, Another Sought

Plans to sell the Marion Veterans Memorial, Inc. home at S. Main St. and Delaware Ave. were announced today.

Charles Morbitt, president of the board of trustees, said the property is listed with the Marion Real Estate Board for sale at a price of $52,500.

The trustees decided to sell the property in order to obtain a larger property on the outskirts of the city and build a large building with added recreation facilities, he said. "Our dream is to some day have a sort of Veterans Country Club," Morbitt explained.

Present facilities in the former Haberman estate have grown too small to accommodate all the veterans organizations that make use of the home for recreation and as a place to hold meetings, he said.

"As it is now, a vet who wants to play cards can come to the home and play, but there's no recreational facilities for his wife or family," Morbitt said.

Plans of the trustees are still in the formative stage, but as envisioned now, the new home would be equipped with a large auditorium convertible to a dance floor or basketball court, tennis courts, large dining room, picnic area, and among other things, individual offices for each veterans organization.

Jewelry Worth $1,000 Stolen During Breakin

Approximately $1,000 worth of rings and other jewelry were stolen from the display window of the May Jewelry Store early this morning.

Most of the stolen goods were rings, store officials said. Police said entrance to the window was gained by a person throwing a rock through the plate glass and reaching through the hole to pull out the loot.

The burglar alarm in the store was sounded in the street but by the time it was heard and police notified, the thief had escaped with his loot.

An employee of the Safety Cab Co. heard the alarm and called police.

Police officials are investigating the robbery today. They declined to say whether they had any definite clues as to the identity of the person who committed the crime. The broken window will be replaced today. No estimate of its value was available.

U.N. Diplomats Gather in N.Y., Discuss Korea

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (U. S. — Top U. N. diplomats began arriving here today for a week of behind-the-scenes talks on the impending Korean political conference.

Before the 60-nation General Assembly convenes next Monday, the delegates hope to agree on the conference and its time and place. The conference must begin by Oct. 27, under the terms of the Korean armistice.

Some preliminary talks have been in progress since the truce signing, but the signal for full-scale consultations was the return of Chief U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., from Korea.

Lodge conferred with President Eisenhower at the summer White House in Denver yesterday, then rushed back to New York to begin discussions immediately.

Arriving in New York today were Soviet Delegate Andrei Y. Vishin-

Jury To Study Gambling and Criminal Cases

Arson, Manslaughter Among Charges To Be Considered Tomorrow

Renewal of the gambling investigation initiated in May and consideration of five criminal cases, ranging from larceny to arson and manslaughter are expected to get the attention of the Marion County grand jury when it reconvenes tomorrow morning.

Eight counts of arson and two counts of attempted arson facing Paul Edwin Holyeross, 18-year-old Marion youth who has admitted setting industrial fires in Marion causing estimated damages of $227,000, will be considered by the jurors.

Other Arson Charges

Attempted arson charges against Herman Dale Sharrock, 39, of 663 1/2 W. Center St., will also be considered by the jurors. He was arrested July 28 on charges of twice attempting to set fire to an apartment on W. Center St.

Also awaiting grand jury action is Willie Pickens, 22, of 505 Jefferson St., who is charged with manslaughter in connection with the deaths of H. W. Crissinger, 71, of 139 Dix Ave., and Harry Mathias, 56, of 278 1/2 E. Church St., in a head-on auto collision July 19 on Route 30-S near Caledonia. Pickens was driving one of the automobiles involved in the accident.

Also facing a charge of manslaughter is Walter Lee Balch, 20, of the Werley Hotel. The charge came about as a result of the traffic death of Myron E. Ralston, 27, on July 27 from a collision at N. Main and George Sts., involving a car driven by Balch and a motorcycle operated by Ralston.

Charged With Larceny

Facing a larceny charge is William Dale Snively, 31, of Bucyrus, who has admitted stealing articles valued at approximately $1,000 over a period of several months. He was arrested May 17 and recently was judged sane fol-

Would Erect New One, or Use Hospital

Proposals Would Cost City From $150,000 To $385,000, He Says

Three separate plans for providing Marion with a new city hall at costs ranging from $150,000 to some $385,000 were presented to City Council last night by Mayor Harold F. Robinson.

These plans were:

1. Constructing a new city hall on a lot at the corner of Church and Prospect Sts. with adjacent public parking garage, $385,000.

2. Remodeling the present City Hospital building on Delaware Ave. to use all but the third floor, $150,000.

3. More extensive remodeling and rebuilding of the hospital to use all floors, $250,000 to $300,000.

The first plan, for construction of a new city hall and public parking garage, would cost some $385,000. This, along with estimated interest charges of $125,000 over a 25-year period, would be paid for partly from revenue realized from operation of the parking garage, Mayor Robinson said.

The rest of the money would come from parking meter revenues and from the funds the city now pays in renting its headquarters in the Eagles Building, he said.

Remodeling Proposals

Alternate plans for remodeling the hospital building would cost the city between $150,000 and $300,000, which would require additional tax levies, Mayor Robinson said.

The $150,000 figure would be for a project to remodel the hospital providing for use of all except the third floor. The $300,000 figure is for a project requiring gutting of the building, removal of the roof and complete rebuilding of the interior to provide for use of all floors.

Remodeling the hospital would provide 15,600 square feet of floor space. Rebuilding it would provide 26,000 square feet, and the plans for a new building would provide 17,000 square feet, plus a garage for parking of 150 automobiles. The city now has usable floor space of about 6,870 square feet in the present city hall in the Eagles Building.

Two Separate Buildings

As envisioned in the preliminary plans drawn by Architects Edwards and Burris of 504 S. State St., the new city hall and parking garage would be two separate buildings on the city-owned parking lot at S. Prospect and W. Church Sts.

The City Hall building would be a three-story structure with the ground floor about three or four feet under the present ground level.

The public parking garage is planned as a four-story structure with no below-ground level floors. Also there would be no roof over the top floor which would give the building the appearance of having about the same height as the city hall building.

The preliminary plans also propose that the two buildings be so constructed that an additional story could be added to each one for possible future expansion.

Methods of Paying

In suggesting a method for paying for the new buildings, the architects and Mayor Robinson told Council last night that one method would be by use of revenue bonds.

These are bonds issued by bonding companies on estimated income of city government, they explained. In this case the revenue would be raised by three methods. One would be from fees

Canadian Liberals Score Clean Sweep in Election

TORONTO (U. S. — Canadians still swear by Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent and will have none—or very little—of his detractors. They made that clear in the national elections with a big tide of votes rolling the Liberal party to an unprecedented fifth term.

The vote yesterday returned the Liberals to power with a House of Commons majority just short of the record margin they ran up in the landslide St. Laurent engineered in 1949.

There were 265 Commons seats at stake. The Liberals needed 133 to maintain a majority able to back a government. They won 171.

The Progressive Conservative (Tory) party won 50. The socialist CCF (Commonwealth Cooperative Federation) was in third place with 23 and the Social Crediters next with 15. The remaining 6 were scattered.

In 1949 the Liberals won 193 seats for the greatest majority in history. The Conservatives won 41, the CCF 13 and the Social Crediters 10.

St. Laurent hailed the result as showing Canada has the kind of government it wants. He called the returns "a heartening expression of confidence."

The 71-year-old "Uncle Louis" conducted his own kind of campaign, "I'm running on performance, not promises," he said.

Ownership Spreads

Stock Buyers Increase,
Big Companies Report

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Brokers may wall about the many discouraging days this year when folk don't seem to be buying stocks. But some leading corporations report that the number of persons registered as owning their stock has actually increased since the first of the year.

The New York Stock Exchange estimates more than 200,000 new owners of shares in its listed companies were added last year. The trend appears to be continuing despite the slow trading days which often have been below the break-even point at which harassed stock brokers can make enough in commissions to cover operating expenses. They contend they lost money on anything less than a million-share trading day.

A number of big corporations say their own experience indicates more and more Americans are becoming owners of industry, quietly buying stock for investment and putting them in strong boxes.

Stock splits tend to accent the spread of ownership. So far this year more than 50 companies have approved stock splits, well ahead of the number at the same time last year.

Ownership spreading works this way: If a company splits its stock two for one, theoretically the resulting split share should be worth just one half as much. That is, each new share represents just half as much of the company's assets as the old share did. In practice, the price often rises above this half-way mark because traders think the company's prospects must be good.

The new share, however, does cost less than the old, and thus automatically falls into a range more people can afford. More people can, and usually do, buy it.

For example, Du Pont stock is now selling in the neighborhood of $100 a share. But without some stock splitting in the past, one share would theoretically at least cost $380—out of the reach of most Americans with money to put into stocks.

Du Pont reports it now has 144,526 individuals registered as stock owners. This is an increase of 17,361 since the first of the year, and a gain of 22,837 in the last 18 months.

Some companies, moreover, believe another trend in stock holding tends to hide the real growth in the number of actual stockholders.

For this feat the crew of the plane will receive the Mackay trophy. They made the 3,460-mile flight by the great circle route from Elmendorf Air Force base at Anchorage, Alaska, to Yokota Air Base in Japan. The flight took 9 hours and 50 minutes. Air Show, Display of Planes
Will Honor Wright Brothers

DAYTON — Aviation personalities by the Air Force will be on display at the Vandallia airport. In addition, a multitude of static Air Force exhibits depicting various phases of air operation will also be open to free public inspection.

Aerial demonstrations will highlight the three day show with eight or more Korean air "aces" scheduled to appear during the ceremonies. Included in this group will be Capt. Joseph McConnell, leading Air Force jet ace with 16 Russian-built MIGs to his credit during his tour of duty in the recently ended Korean conflict.

In addition, the Air Force will put on aerial demonstrations of the maneuverability of modern jet aircraft, and top flyers of the air arm, including Major Chuck Yeager, first man to break the sonic barrier, will make an assault upon this unseen wall.

The Thompson, Bendix and Allison trophy events will all be part of the gigantic show.

The fiftieth anniversary celebration of that first flight will be held in the city that was home to these two men. Only Orville was born in Dayton, (Millville, Ind.) Wilbur (Wilbur) but nearly all of their early life was spent in the Miami Valley city. Here they owned and operated a bicycle repair shop, and it was here that they conducted the vast majority of the experiments which led to the climatic flight.

In September, most of the industrial giants of the free world's aviation industry will gather in Dayton, along with air attaché representatives of 44 nations and an estimated 500,000 American citizens who are chiefly concerned with what progress this half-century old industry has made. THINK OF FUTURE TRADE-IN
WHEN YOU TRY OUT A CAR!

Reports Prove Mercury's Trade-In Value
Tops Them All in Its Price Class!

Smart shoppers know the actual cost of a new car isn't found on the price tag. When you buy a car you're making an investment. When you sell or trade in that car, one, two, or more years later—you get back part of your original purchase price. With some cars, this resale value is disappointingly small. But with Mercury—according to four independent, impartial surveys—you get the highest resale value in the entire Mercury price class.

The reason? Mercury's consistent years-ahead styling, for one thing. Clean, long, low lines that set the style and stay in style. Colorful interiors that keep their smartness for years. And Mercury's proven V-8 performance is another reason. A V-8 engine is the only type ever used in Mercury—and this latest is the best performer we've ever built.

So—before you buy any car—get the story on Mercury. Find out about Mercury's optional power features—the widest choice in the field—check on Mercury's proven economy. Above all, try a Mercury ride! We feel sure you'll agree no other car will do!

Crawford Farmers To Vote on Wheat Marketing Quotas

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS—Four voting places will be set up Friday for Crawford County farmers to cast ballots on the wheat marketing quota referendum, Harry F. Fauser of Bucyrus, chairman of the county Production and Marketing Administration committee, announced here today.

Wheat growers of Bucyrus, Dallas, Liberty, Todd, Holmes and Whetstone Townships will vote at the county PMA office in the First National Bank building in Bucyrus; Lykens, Chatfield and Texas Township residents will vote at the Lykens Township Hall; Auburn, Cranberry, Sandusky and Vernon Townships at Tiro High School; Jackson, Jefferson and Polk at Gallion city hall.

Polling places will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. with a local referendum committee of wheat growers, named by the county PMA committee, in charge of each voting place.

More than 600 farmers in the county are eligible to vote. Chairman Fauser said today that the rejection of marketing quotas on the 1954 wheat crop would result in a reduction of price supports. A favorable vote on the quotas would result in price support at 90 per cent of parity, according to Fauser.

Greenberg Stays, Holds Lopez Fate, Says Tribe Prexy

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians' president predicted today Hank Greenberg would be retained as general manager and added that whether Al Lopez continues as manager is up to Hank.

Myron H. Wilson, in an interview with a newspaper reporter, declared he was "thoroughly satisfied with Hank's work. His contract has another year to run and as far as I'm concerned I hope he wants to stay with us. I never have met a man who works as hard at his job as Hank."

"We hear all kinds of things," he continued, such as "Why don't you get rid of Lopez?" "Why don't you do this or that?" The truth is we never have discussed the managerial situation. Not a single person connected with the club has talked to me about it. Lopez' contract ends this year. I presume the decision on Lopez is up to Hank. We'll take his judgment."

"Firing a manager doesn't solve all the problems," Wilson said. The Tribe, now in third and failing to live up to the hopes of Clevelanders, is suffering at the gate.

Motive in Double Shooting Sought

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—The question "why?" probably will never be answered in a shooting that claimed two lives and left another man in serious condition at Miller, Ohio, a week ago.

Sheriff Carl E. Rose of Lawrence County, Ohio, visited the lone survivor at St. Mary's Hospital here yesterday. He questioned Dennis Edwards, 34, of near Miller but said the wounded man was unable to shed any light as to the motive for the shooting.

Jerry Blake, 36, killed Willard C. Galloway, 35, wounded Edwards and then killed himself after visiting together at a tavern in Athalia, Ohio, the sheriff related. The sheriff quoted Edwards that there had been no ill feeling between him and Blake or between Blake and Galloway.

Entries Begin Arriving for County Fair

Clifford Campbell, secretary of the Marion County Fair Board, announced this morning he has already received almost 20 entries for this year's fair and his office at the Coliseum has not yet opened.

The office is scheduled to open Wednesday at 9 a.m. It will be open to take entries from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday; and on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Campbell reminded entrants that Saturday is the last day for livestock and poultry entries in the fair.

The midway will have to be lengthened and several extra tents for livestock shelter erected this year because of the great number of Marion merchants who are showing exhibits, he said. More merchants are taking space for displays this year than ever before, he reported.

The Marion County Fair this year will start one day ahead of the usual time because of the early starting date of the State Fair. Campbell said the fair has been opened early this year to allow the entrants to move their displays and exhibits to Columbus by Aug. 28, opening date of the State Fair.

He also said that no display will be released before 6 p.m. on Thursday, Aug. 27, closing of the Marion fair.

New Floor Care Ends Waxing

One of the most difficult jobs of housekeeping is to keep linoleum and asphalt tile floors waxed and gleaming. Now, thanks to Glaxo, it is no longer necessary to wax and scrub. All you do is apply Glaxo with a brush about twice a year. It maintains a high lustre, non slip coating that seals out dirt. Glaxo dries in one hour and is water clear. It's cheaper than wax in the long run, besides saving a terrific amount of work, plus truly a beautiful floor. Glaxo is available at Uhl's 3rd Floor.

Russia Has the H-Bomb

True to the precedent set by Stalin that all meetings of the Supreme Soviet should be honored with announcements of major importance, Malenkov startled the world last Saturday with an announcement that the Soviet Union now has the H-bomb.

Since the Supreme Soviet has no other apparent use in the Communist apparatus than to applaud what has been done, the announcement was duly applauded and flashed throughout the world for its terroristic effect.

There now are two questions for non-Russian atomic scientists and intelligence agents to answer, without any possible access to information:

1. Does the Soviet Union have an A-bomb?

2. Does the Soviet Union have an H-bomb?

There is no proof it has either one. There is only an assumption based on circumstantial evidence that nuclear explosions have occurred inside Russia.

Whether or not these explosions were produced by bombs is a moot question. It is unlikely that more than a handful of Russians know, though this is the only thing worth knowing.

Once the basic information is at hand, any government willing to spend the money can produce a nuclear explosion. But only a government with vast resources of wealth and knowledge can produce nuclear explosions at will and in large numbers.

Only one government has done this—the United States will be glad to send a notarized nuclear-fission bomb in the air, under the surface of the ocean, on land, on towers and in artillery shells.

If the purpose of talking about atomic explosions is to terrorize the other fellow, the United States will be glad to send notarized record of its blasts to the Supreme Soviet for further study and will cheerfully receive a similar list from the Kremlin.

Let's Face It

Naturally and properly, it's news when American boys who had been held prisoner by Communists yielded to Red indoctrination.

News is the unusual.

Before going off the deep end over the handful that yielded, Americans who never have been prisoners of war had better count to 100 and consider a few things.

Would they be in favor of leaving American boys influenced by Red propaganda in the Korean prison camps?

Do they demand that men who have been forced to live in extreme hardship and danger under unnatural circumstances be absolutely immune to doctrines which have had a powerful impact on sheltered men who never carried a gun or risked their lives in a war?

Is it a too-soft policy to assume that the handful of Americans who either accepted or pretended to accept Communist doctrine while despairing of their lives in prison camps may be just as strongly influenced by Americanism?

Is it un-American to admit there have been some Americans captured in Korea who were mentally unprepared to resist the indoctrination of the most skilled propagandists of the 20th century?

There is only one proper way to welcome home any American who has been a prisoner of war in the Korean war:

Welcome home, son. Your fellow citizens are glad to see you.

Who Has Clean Hands?

Two little known facts have more to do with the scandal over racketeering among New York dock workers than the AFL's formal gestures of rebuke.

One is the fact the states of New York and New Jersey, despairing of any help from unionism, finally have passed laws to license key people in dock work. They are not going to wait for International Longshoremen's Association or the AFL.

They are fighting to save the port of New York from racketeers.

Second is the fact the men who control the dock workers in the New York area now are in open revolt against both the law and the AFL. Having eaten much meat with the connivance of corrupt public and private officials, they have grown too strong to be disciplined.

They believe they are too strong to be touched. To the AFL, they say they will out officers with criminal records if AFL makes its affiliates do likewise. To the threat of losing their AFL charter, they retort they will declare civil war on the piers if anyone tries to start a new union. To public authority, they boast they will paralyze the docks if they are inconvenienced.

Belatedly, it is occurring to a great many people that a conspiracy against the public interest is made no easier to bear because it was made possible by union-coddling in government.

Mightier Than H-Bomb

By David Lawrence

Malenkov Knows Devastating Effect of Food Riots

It's good news for America—that Malenkov says Soviet Russia has the hydrogen bomb. He now knows its destructiveness.

It's good news because a weapon of such devastating power probably will never be used against the peoples of either Soviet Russia or the United States—the deterrent influence will increase as knowledge of its danger grows.

The United States would never want to use the H-bomb unless attacked and the government of Soviet Russia would never dare to use it. It could mean a retaliation that would destroy the Russian people.

It's good news also because America not only has a tremendous lead in the production of atomic weapons but now has an incentive for her industrial machine to maintain that lead indefinitely.

It is of secondary importance whether Soviet Russia actually has developed one hydrogen bomb or has reached the point of knowing how to manufacture many more. What is important is that Malenkov saw fit to make a public announcement saying that the United States has "not for a long time" enjoyed a monopoly in the production of either the A-bomb or the H-bomb.

Why did the Communist leader say so at this time? Examination of the pertinent passages of his speech reveals clearly that he was trying to give the lie to those who construed the recent Soviet peace offensive as due to internal weakness. The more he developed his theme, however, the more he revealed that his basic reason is a fear of internal forces hostile to him.

The entire address was significant of the "defense mechanism" which operates in Soviet psychology today.

The world must be assured, it seems, that the Communists won the Korean War, that the language of force which is so often referred to by American spokesmen will not frighten Soviet Russia, and that traitors like Beria are not going to make any headway in the Kremlin.

The more these efforts to convey an impression of strength in top leadership are studied, the more they seem to betray deep-seated fears and insecurity.

American policy, of course, has to be based only on safe assumptions—not on wishful thinking.

The long-range effect of the Malenkov announcement will be to step up American production of atomic weapons and to make sure that the air power necessary to carry the bombs to their destination—if war does break out—will be available instantly no matter what the sacrifice now.

Another factor that will loom large from now on is overseas bases. Malenkov's statement may frighten some European countries into policies of "neutrality" as between America and Soviet Russia.

They may be so fearful of an H-bomb or so misled by Communist propaganda as to seek to restrain American air forces from using overseas bases or accumulating bombs there.

Already the British government is relying on an assurance formally given when Mr. Truman was president that no A-bombs will ever be started from bases in England toward an enemy without a full-fledged consultation in advance of such action.

This could mean delay and, in an atomic war, could mean the difference between survival or disaster.

The safest way for America to proceed is to acquire or lease as many overseas bases on land as possible in different parts of the world, and to have also a sufficient number of floating bases in the form of huge aircraft carriers and small carriers stationed in waters near the European theater of possible war so the United States will not be beholden to any countries which at some future time might succumb to Communist infiltration.

Out of the whole atomic scare may come a much more important result—a chance for an era of real peace instead of war. This will not ensue just because of a fear of the terrible consequences of atomic warfare as such.

Fear of death by an artillery shell or a bomb has not prevented wars in the past.

Germ warfare, as developed today, can be far more devastating than an H-bomb.

Chemical gas warfare was tried by both sides in World War I but abandoned in World War II as mutually too destructive to armies even though scientists had increased its deadliness by many times.

The biggest single influence that may come out of the atomic arms race is the growing knowledge by all peoples that they alone must decide their own fate.

The H-bomb isn't as important as the hand that decides to throw it. Dictatorships may become so dangerous that peoples will not take a chance by tolerating them. The disintegration of the Communist dictatorship has already begun.

If American spokesmen and policy-makers will seize the opportunity to tell the people of the Soviet Union and the satellite states how they can avoid the hazards of war by ridding themselves of a warmongering dictatorship which is at the moment quaking in its boots, progress will be begun toward a real peace in the world.

Food could be a mightier force for peace than the H-bomb. East Germany has revealed that hungry people are not afraid to defy dictators.

There is progress toward sanity in the world—toward a realization some day soon of the simple fact that 13 men in Moscow's Politburo cannot always control 200,000,000 peace-loving people.

Thought for Today

By TRUMAN TWILL

An editor fellow named Jenkins, who served briefly this year in the Pentagon on one of those leave-of-absence deals, has been drawing chuckles with a whimsical description of his experiences in that five-sided rabbit warren of bureaucracy.

To him it was an open question what the 30,000 denizens of the place were doing to justify the expense of having them there. "Elaborate reports are written to be unread, ignored or pigeon-holed," declares Editor Jones. "The vast machine of bureaucracy clanks, creaks and screeches—a vital machine set up to do a vital job, but a machine in which some gears don't fit, some strain at an overload, and some turn endlessly in the air without engaging any cogs at all."

It is a thought for today—these gears that "turn endlessly in the air without engaging any cogs at all."

The prime need in a society built on the rule that men live to be in motion is a chance to be in motion. It follows as night follows day in a still broader pattern that men must be expected to fall back on endless subterfuge to create an illusion of motion when there is no need for it.

In the absence of anything useful to do, they will invent useless things to do. And their superiors will aid and abet them in this, especially in bureaucracy, where the profit-and-loss relationship has no significance, since government is either all profit or all loss, depending on how you look at it.

Bureaucracy has learned everything it knows from the private enterprise system which subsidizes its costs. And for those who make a pastime of criticizing bureaucracy, it is confession worth making that many of the practices which are objected when they are discovered in Washington, the state capital, or city hall are familiar but unpublicized practices in private enterprise.

Private enterprise, contrary to the strident press-agency of its tub-thumpers, is not without its paper shufflers. It too has its gears that turn endlessly in the air, its boondoggling and its apple-crap-that keeps myriads busy for no better purpose than to enable them to put their aching feet under tables loaded with provender.

It is a thought for today, any day this working to live. One worker rakes leaves off a lawn that will be covered with leaves again before he is through. Another adds a painted decoration to a useless toy. Millions shuffle papers into slots in filing cabinets which eventually will be emptied of their useless contents and refilled with more of the same.

A farmer grows parsley, to decorate lamb chops and creamed potatoes. And some other fellow looks at this and wonders. This Jenkins Lloyd Jones, this editor fellow who went to the Pentagon on leave from his paper, the Tulsa Tribune, wondered and wondered.

He had a six-circuit telephone on his desk. One circuit was unlabeled. He wondered about that. What was its purpose in national defense?

One day he pushed the button for that mysterious circuit and listened. Someone in the Pentagon with nothing else to do was ordering groceries.

Dr. Calvin Pancoast Gailey, in addition to his practice, served as mayor of the city of Marion and also was township treasurer for six years. He was born in Wayne County, O., Dec. 9, 1845, and graduated from Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, in 1874. He served as mayor of the city from 1882 to 1890. Another physician who served as head of the city was Dr. J. G. Seiter, a native of Richland Township where he was born Sept. 11, 1852. He graduated from the Cleveland Homoeopathic Hospital College in 1881 and practiced in Spencerville for years before moving to Cardington in 1885. He came to Marion in 1889.

Contamination From Spilled Radium

By Michael Amrine

The U. S. Naval Radiological Defense Laboratory at San Francisco has revealed that, recently, 40 micrograms of a radium solution was spilled in its laboratory and the accident was not discovered until 16 hours later.

The accident itself is ironical—for the laboratory studies defense against radioactivity and instruments to detect it, and, as it turned out, no one was injured and the scientists and staff gained valuable experience in tracking down contamination.

All personal effects, clothing, homes and automobiles of students working in the laboratory were decontaminated by intensive scrubbing within a few days after the spill was discovered, and they will receive periodic physical examinations to watch for any latent effects of the radiation.

Writing in Nucleonics, the leading technical magazine of atomic energy, R. K. Skow, V. V. Vandiver and F. R. Holden reported on the freak effects of contamination left around by persons who did not know at the time that they were "carriers."

In one case a divan was contaminated in the outline of the student's body where he had lain down. It was also possible to trace the footsteps of some of the students into their homes, up and down stairs.

Such radiation is measured in terms of the numbers of atoms which break up or disintegrate per minute.

The radium solution had been in a glass capsule which was unknowingly stepped on, and the initial activity from the building would produce half a million atomic disintegrations a minute from a small area.

Soles of shoes, pockets and laps of laboratory white coats would give a reading of 200,000 disintegrations per minute when the accident was first discovered.

The shoes would give readings of 20,000 DPM and so did floor mats of automobiles students had traveled in.

The building was sealed off for three days and then a survey group in rubber boots, rubber gloves, and gas masks made their measurements. The entire building had been contaminated because the staff had walked through the hot room and then into other rooms.

In the home of one student they measured virtually everything—a pencil gave a reading of 1,500 DPM; a door knob, 1,500; a clothes brush, 1,500; a towel, 3,000; a pillow, 4,000.

All the students received a scrubbing with soap and water and citric acid where they proved to be "hot." It developed that wool clothing could not be salvaged, but cotton clothing and other washable fabrics could be laundered several times and then could be worn again.

All shoes were saved after repeated scrubbing and personal items, if they were hard-surfaced—like door knobs, steering wheels, and so forth—also came clean after treatment with germicides, detergents, and vacuum cleaning.

It was apparent from this experience that the vacuum cleaner will be exceedingly valuable to civil defense in the event of bomb radioactivity, for one recovered about 35 per cent of the spilled radium on the lab floor and it was also invaluable in the general cleaning of houses following the accident.

Porous substances, like floor mats, seat covers, carpets, pillows, etc., could not be cleaned and had to be disposed of. In the lab itself painted concrete and unpainted wood were decontaminated by heating the surfaces with an oxyacetylene torch, followed by scraping and vacuum cleaning. The surfaces were completely restored by repainting, and the building was cleaned for use again 90 days after the spill.

Fearful that some of the radium might have been breathed into lungs, from which some of it would be exhaled, intensive breath sampling of the students was made, but no evidence of injury was found.

The radioactive cleaning rags, the condemned rags, linoleum, etc., filled more than 200 drums.

These were weighed with concrete and shipped out to sea. The incident was considered closed when the drums were dropped overboard in water deeper than 100 fathoms.

Saucers Old Stuff

By Thomas R. Henry

Shooting stars that look like balls of green fire now are quite common phenomena.

He has received hundreds of reports on them in the past 12 months, Dr. C. C. Wylie of Iowa State University has just reported to the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Canadian astronomers also have reported a considerable number. The stars have been mistaken for space ships from some other planet and their green color attributed to burning copper in the hulls of such craft caused by friction after striking the earth's atmosphere.

But they are just ordinary meteors, Dr. Wylie says, although the reason for the green color is not entirely clear. From an examination of eight-year-old reports he concludes they were just as frequent that long ago as now.

The reports come to him with those of "flying saucers," Dr. Wylie says, and the latter are no mystery to him. He himself has seen groups of them cavorting around the skies.

"The typical saucer," Dr. Wylie reports, "is seen only on clear days and has the appearance of a round or oval disk of bright aluminum. Use of the word 'saucer' for any other strange light is rare."

In the summer of 1948 I saw a group of conspicuous saucers and verified that they were produced by metal planes when driving toward them. Another check which I have made is to call an airport when a saucer is seen and verify that a plane is maneuvering in that area. A few reported to me have been produced by birds. The glistering white breast of a hawk seen from a critical angle with the sun may shine like a 'saucer' when flying, or like a tin can when the bird is sitting on a post.

"It should be noted that a plane may be close enough to be seen and heard as a plane and yet become a 'saucer' with a sudden change in direction of travel."

A hawk may be easily recognized with the naked eye and suddenly become a saucer when it changes the direction of its flight. "All these saucers are simply reflected sunlight. They are seen only when the sun is shining. They generally are seen only in the part of the sky opposite to the sun. There is only one sighting on each saucer. It may disappear suddenly when the plane turns and reappear again at a different level."

The Saratoga Season

This is the season at Saratoga, the cradle of American horseracing. Up there in the historic hills of colonial battles, gambling investigations, mineral water promotions and high August rentals, racing takes on a mood of dignity, leisure and "upper brackets."

The open shirt and hairy chest go into a moderate fadeout, the cry of "Hey Butch, did Stinky say they're tryin' today?" is less general and the people who look at a thoroughbred horse with the cold, hard eye of bandits siding up the prospects for a financial killing seem fewer.

At Saratoga, where it is not hard to picture the ghosts of Lillian Russell, Commodore Fisk, General Grant, "Bet-A-Million" Gates, the Miners and the early American crop of Vanderbilts, Keenes, Harrimans and Goulds moving among the stately elms, it seems a pleasure to lose money, since you are running out of dough with the best people.

There is something in the very tradition of Saratoga that makes a horse player strive to get culture into a squawk over a photo finish. "If you gotta beef, ya bum, beef like a gentleman!" we heard a tout say firmly the other day, expressing the keynote of Saratoga behavior.

Even the horses are harder to approach. There are racing tipsters who admit you to their circle "by card only," and here is one of the few tracks in the world where a racing sheet can be studied through a lorgnette without arousing comment.

The Stevens Brothers serve a breakfast during the morning workouts, Frank wearing the fawn spats and Joe showing up in the habiliments of a leader of the Upper Chetney-on-Thames fox-hunting set.

Jockeys wear the air of lads on a slumming trip as they regard the rank and file. The men in the $2 mutuels windows show no five-o'clock shadow. Ah, Saratoga!

We miss the old Grand Union with its mile-long verandas, open plumbing and coil of rope in each room in case of fire; slow elevators, fast planters' punches and dazzling chandeliers. (The latter are now in a wayside inn in Cheshire, Connecticut.)

A chain grocery is replacing the old hotel and it is saddening to think of a housewife haggling over the price of a head of cabbage on the spot where Lillian Russell once slept . . . hear a rattle of canned goods where the tinkle of string instruments long floated on the air . . . note such inquiries as, "Where do you keep the cheeses?" and "How much are the chicken livers?" here for many years the conversation centered on beautiful women, fine wines and fast horses.

Something goes out of Saratoga like the day you see a chain-store manager wrestling with the day's figures in the very place where so many notables lightly went over the handicap figures.

President Peron of the Argentine fell off a motorcycle and was banged up quite a bit the other day . . . The motorcycle industry will suffer for this, bub.

"Velvet" and "Card Trick" won races at Saratoga this week, the names sounding especially appropriate for the mood at the Spa. Mrs. Pearl Mesta, we see, is back in Moscow after being shown around the Caucasian oil fields and issuing a statement declaring them wonderful. . . . What goes between Perle and the Kremlin, that the hostess with the mostest on the ball is getting such special treatment? The country has a right to know the name of the cocktail that can work wonders like that, lady.

MRS. GERALD A. DAVIS

Vows Exchanged By Miss Freed and Lt. Gerald A. Davis

Pink and white chrysanthemums, palms, and candle light formed the background for the marriage on Thursday evening of Miss Betty Lou Freed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sol Freed of 512 Vernon Heights Blvd., to Lt. Gerald Arthur Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Davis of Sharon, Pa.

The ceremony, conducted by Rabbi Myer Abramowitz of Sharon, Pa., was performed in the ballroom of the Hotel Harding and was followed by a reception and dinner. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a cocktail-length gown of blue silk organza over white taffeta, beaded over all with pearls and sequins. Her shoulder length veil was attached to a coronet of pink net and pearls, and she carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Bertram Freed, sister-in-law of the bride, was the only attendant. She was gowned in cocktail-length light blue silk shantung gown and she wore a headpiece fashioned of blue and white shattered chrysanthemums. She carried a matching bouquet of chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom's father, Robert M. Davis, was best man, and the usher was Bertram H. Freed, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Davis was graduated from Stephens Junior College, at Columbia, Mo., and from Ohio State University where she received a bachelor's degree in social administration. In June, 1952, she received a master's degree from the school of Social Administration of Western Reserve University, Cleveland.

Lt. Davis, who recently returned from Korea, was graduated from Pennsylvania State University where he received a bachelor's degree in business administration. For the past three years he has served with the U. S. Army.

On their return from a wedding trip to Nantucket, Mass., Lt. Davis will report to Fort Bragg, N. C., where he and his bride will reside.

California Boy, 18, Bound to Jury on Charge of Larceny

An 18-year-old California youth was bound over to the grand jury under $5,000 this morning after he entered a plea of guilty to charges of breaking and entering and larceny when he appeared in Municipal Court.

The youth, Roland Dilling of Bellflower, Calif., was charged with breaking and entering the home of Clarence Pichard near Brush Ridge early Friday morning and taking a loaded revolver and knife valued at approximately $65. The theft was reported to the Marion County sheriff's office that afternoon and investigation disclosed that a neighbor recalled seeing a strange youth in the neighborhood before the breaking and entering.

The sheriff's office raided a description of the youth and state highway patrolmen apprehended Dilling while he was hitch-hiking near Van Wert yesterday. He was armed with the loaded revolver.

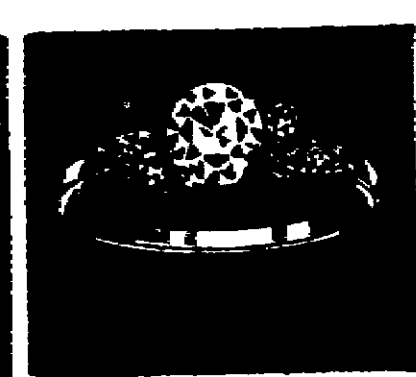

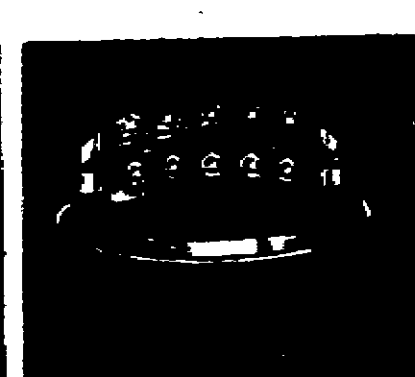

Upon questioning the youth admitted breaking into the Marion County residence. There is a possibility that his case may be considered in tomorrow's session of the grand jury.

Galion Family Of 7 Routed by Fire at Home

SPECIAL TO THE STAR

GALION — A family of seven was routed out of its ten-room frame house near here early this morning by fire of undetermined origin which was believed to have started in the kitchen.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Seitz, who reside on the Dice Rd. about three miles southwest of Galion, and their five children ranging in age from two and one-half to 15, escaped without injury. Damage to the home is expected to amount to several thousands of dollars.

Mrs. Seitz and three children made their way out of the house by a door on the porch roof and went down a banister. Mr. Seitz, who is a farmer, fled downstairs with two small boys and after pushing them out, went back in to summon the fire department on a telephone in a smoke filled room.

The kitchen of the home was destroyed and a room upstairs directly above the kitchen and the attic were hard hit by fire. The blaze went up the partitions and under the entire roof of the house.

Firemen were able to take out some clothing, some beds and a little other furniture but everything in the kitchen was destroyed. There was some insurance on the home.

Firemen reported a gasoline stove in the kitchen didn't explode and said there was no wind or otherwise the fire would probably have taken the house.

The Galion fire department was summoned at 3:40 a.m. and was there until 6 a.m. The Crestline Fire Department brought a water tank and from Sulphur Springs, fire fighters brought equipment.

Freed POW's Say Buddies Sold Them Out

FREEDOM VILLAGE, Korea (AP)

—Liberated American soldiers told today shocking stories of "squealing" by fellow prisoners, some of whom chose to stay behind rather than returned to the United States.

Others described tortures suffered because they defied their Communist captors—tortures that included hanging by the arms, beatings, imprisonment in crude dungeons, starvation rations and "ice baths."

Their stories—told to newsmen at this processing center for returned Americans—added to the mounting evidence of the horrors an intrigue that flamed in North Korean prison camps.

Pfc. Howard D. Estell of Columbus, Ohio, spoke bitterly about the Red "trials," saying "When they want to put someone in jail, they make up something and then make you confess one way or the other. They point a pistol at you and if that's not enough, they have other methods."

Sgt. James W. Dixon of Hampton, Va., related he was given repeated "ice baths" for being "reactionary."

"I was always interrupting the propaganda lectures," he said. "Next thing I know I am down there standing on the Yalu River."

He said the Chinese would remove his shoes and make him stand on the frozen river.

At Pyongyang, Dixon said "we buried 2,000 men. It's hard to forget them."

Marion and Kenton delegates representing the VFW Auxiliary have returned from the VFW national encampment at Milwaukee, Wis.

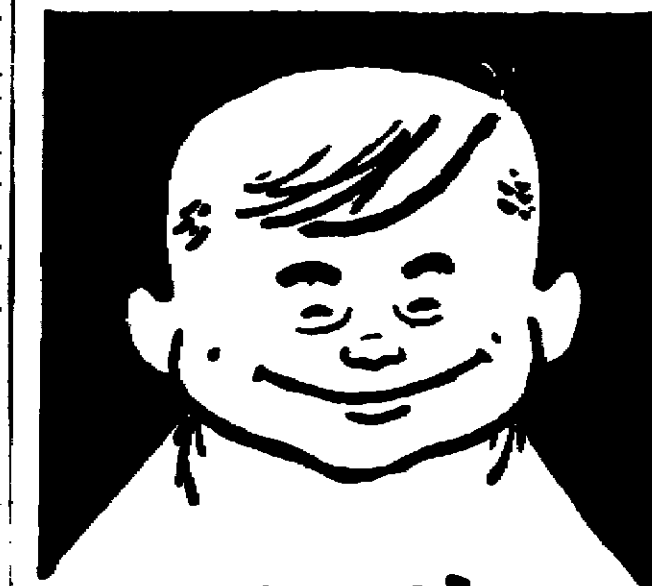

They were Mrs. Bertha Sheppard of 225 Chase St. and Mrs. Marjorie Frost of Kenton.

A pageant Thursday night included drill teams marching and fireworks. A huge emblem was presented to the city and Joe E. Brown was presented the Al Johnson award. Vice President Nixon and Senators McCarthy and Cooper were speakers.

The Fostoria band took first place for the fourth time in succession.

These Days

By George Sokolsky

No matter how popular or unpopular a President may be, in the final analysis his Administration stands or falls on the work of the Congress.

Whatever program he may have for the improvement of the country must be passed by Congress. Whenever a President has faced an antagonistic Congress for a prolonged period, the country has suffered.

The worst example of this in recent years was the relations between President Herbert Hoover and the Democratic Congress elected in 1930. The country was paralyzed because neither the executive nor Congress could function adequately.

THE FIRST session of the 83rd Congress may be regarded as an Eisenhower Congress. Both political parties supported the President.

The leadership of the Democratic party particularly was unwilling to take advantage of the fact that the Republicans at no time had a working majority.

Furthermore, the Republicans were divided into factions held together only by the personality and leadership of Robert A. Taft.

At a dozen points, this session could have been disrupted by parliamentary tricks or by a coalition of anti-Eisenhower Republicans and Democrats.

It did not happen because of the general decision to give Eisenhower a chance and because the country was in crisis during the entire period, and because of Taft's moral leadership.

Yet, the point must be made that many Republicans are sorely disappointed by this session of Congress and fear its consequences in the 1954 election.

I SENSED this attitude during the Taft funeral in Washington when conversation naturally turned on the great loss the Republicans suffered by his death.

It was the last day of the session and members of Congress of either party were deeply concerned.

Many of the experienced legislators expressed disbelief in the continuance of Democratic support for Eisenhower in the second session of the 83rd Congress because it will not pay the Democrats to go along. They will be paving the way for their own victory in 1954.

Some felt that the violence of the attack on Sen. McCarthy in the last days of this session was a portent of events to come.

They said that while it was true that the Democrats were laying for McCarthy, the vehemence of the attack is designed to make a record for 1954.

IT NEEDS to be recalled that Sen. John McClellan had, in the past, been one of the strongest supporters not only of McCarthy personally but of his methods, his probes and his attitudes. Yet it was McClellan who led the fight on McCarthy on an issue which the public perhaps missed, namely, the control of the staff.

The Republicans will go into the second session of the 83rd Congress without a majority in the Senate and with only a fractional majority in the House.

There will be no Taft to hold the party together by moral suasion. Sen. Wayne Morse, the sole Independent party, can play a critical role unless some of the elders in the Democratic party continue supporting the Republicans to provide a synthetic majority. Taft's most important role in this session was to act as a bridge between the White House and the Congress.

THAT ROLE will now be taken on by the vice president, Richard Nixon, who has not yet developed the stature to lead his colleagues. Senators Knowland, Bridges, Millikin, Dirksen and Ferguson are influential among Republicans, but how effective it is impossible to say. The 1954 election may bring strength to either party; it is too early even to guess.

It was in this atmosphere of uncertainty and even shock that this first session of the 83rd Congress adjourned, having failed to accomplish the three principal objectives of the Republican party:

- 1 — Get out of the Korean War with dignity and honor;
- 2 — Cut taxes;
- 3 — Get subversives out of the government.

ONLY THE first of these objectives has even been approached by the truce; the other two have been postponed.

Neither the Eisenhower administration nor the 83rd Congress is to blame for the huge public debt, the high taxes, the depreciated currency or the unbalanced budget with its huge deficit.

These they inherited from Truman, but they are responsible for an unrealistic approach to these problems — realism requiring the government expenditures be cut to the bone.

The political question that faces those who will run for office in 1954 is whether there will be time to retrieve their position by November, 1954.

Gigantic winch in background prepares to pull 20-inch oil pipeline into Straits of Mackinac at St. Ignace, Mich., first step in four-mile operation of pulling the pipe across the 243-foot deep water. Sloan Simpson O'Dwyer Gets Civil Divorce

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Sloan Simpson O'Dwyer was reported today to have obtained a Mexican civil divorce from the former mayor of New York City, who became U.S. ambassador to Mexico.

The newspaper Excelsior said court records at Cuernavaca, resort town 45 miles south of the Mexican capital, showed the 36-year-old former model filed suit there, Feb. 18 and was granted a divorce from 62-year-old William O'Dwyer June 3. Excelsior said she charged mental cruelty.

O'Dwyer, who quit his ambassadorial post after President Eisenhower's election and opened a law office here, would neither confirm nor deny the report.

"Our marital affairs are in the hands of the Catholic Church," he said early today in a voice choked with emotion.

Mrs. O'Dwyer is now in Spain and could not be reached immediately for comment.

According to the report from Cuernavaca, she said in her divorce testimony: "From the beginning we knew that our marriage was impossible. The irascible character of my husband, which in time led to almost continual threats and insults, is the cause of all our trouble."

O'Dwyer reportedly was notified of the proceedings and replied he was "not in accord with the proceedings of my wife," but was not on record as having fought the suit.

The O'Dwyers announced last January that the Catholic Church had granted them permission for a temporary separation. Later the Archbishop of Mexico, Msgr. Luis Maria Martinez, said an annulment was being sought.

The couple married in 1949, while he still was mayor of New York.

Pigeon Hunt Conducted In Idaho State Senate

BOISE (AP)—Carpenter Lawrence Hewitt went pigeon shooting in the Idaho Senate chamber yesterday with an air rifle.

Two of the birds flew in through an open window five days ago. Efforts to shoot them out were unsuccessful.

Hewitt hit one on the first try, stunning it so it could be put outside. Its companion finally escaped through an open window unscathed.

Meat Grinders Aid Oyster Production

ILWACO, Wash. (AP)—The love life of the oyster is getting a boost here—in meat grinders.

Oysters in Willapa Bay aren't reproducing fast enough to suit local growers so they're grinding them up by the thousands of bushels.

The grinding mixes sperm and ova and, when the "hash" is strewn on the bay, oyster larvae form in large numbers from the fertilized ova. Full-fledged oysters grow from the larvae.

Under normal conditions, growers have to depend upon currents in the bay to bring sperm and ova together.

Moscow Radio Blasts Allied Pledge to Rhee

LONDON (AP)—Moscow radio today interpreted the pledge of prompt resistance to any new Red aggression in Korea—signed by the United States and 15 allies—as giving South Korean President Syngman Rhee a green light to scuttle the truce.

The agreement, disclosed last Friday, was initiated by all the U.N. members with fighting forces in the truce-bound peninsula. It declared they "should be united and prompt to resist" any renewal "of the armed attack" in Korea.

The Russian broadcast said "This declaration invites the inference that any armed provocation by the Syngman Rhee clique could be sufficient for the frustration of the Korean armistice."

"This is precisely how Syngman Rhee interprets this declaration," it added.

The 16-power declaration expressed determination to seek in good faith a Korean settlement and warned that the "consequences of a breach of the armistice would be so grave that, in all probability, it would not be possible to confine hostilities within the frontiers of Korea."

SCHAFFNER'S

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

All is not glamorous on fashionable Via Veneto despite the ruddy-haired, and now bearded, Clifton Webb and the ravens-headed beauty Linda Darnell floating in and out of Rome's fashionable sidewalk cafes.

The glamor is offset by the intrigue of special British agents whose mission in this Eternal City is to pay off political leaders and turn them anti-United States.

One doesn't say "bribery" in this diplomatic climate. One says "subsidy." The best informed sources on international political intrigue here say they know there is one billion lire (about $1,500,000) floating around Italy's industrial centers for just such a "subsidy" of Italian Socialist and labor circles — if the latter are willing to turn anti-U.S.

THE MONEY, which is a vast sum here, is to be used to set up a new non-Communist, but anti-American labor federation to replace the one which has been friendly to "capitalist" America. Where this money actually comes from no one knows. The intelligence sources do know that British Socialist and labor circles are the payoff masters.

The aim of this operation is to wipe out support for the U.S. in side the Italian government (also the French and German sooner or later) and make American capitalism the world's Enemy No. One in place of Soviet Communism.

It's this British influence on certain Italian circles which shook the DeGasperri government.

IT IS this British influence in world Socialist and labor circles which everywhere is the spearhead of the drive against the United States — skillfully whipping up anti-American sentiment.

The goal of the British Socialists, and the socialist parties of Western Europe and Asia, is the revival of the power of the old Socialist International in the hope that it can compete successfully with the Communist International for global political strength.

The Socialists believe they can unite with left wing and even pro-Communist forces in France and Italy and so take over the governments after a series of crises.

They believe the German Socialists have a change to become the ruling influence there.

THEY ARE convinced that in England itself they will take power in the next election because the Conservative party is leaderless with Churchill and Eden both barred by their doctors from intense political activity.

This would give the Socialist International a bloc almost as vast and powerful as the Comintern's Soviet world.

There is documentary evidence to prove that the Socialists want to see the destruction of existing capitalism — and have declared war on the U.S. as their first target.

On page 4 of a Report on The International Situation adopted by the Socialist International Conference in Stockholm a few weeks ago, one can find the statement that the United States is going fascist "as in Germany" and that the "exact replica of Hitlerian anti-Semitism" is now seen in the U.S. By the Socialists, of course.

THERE IS also this section: "Now we come to capitalism, against which we have engaged battle everywhere in the non-Soviet world."

Then follows a long section which says in so many words that the U.S. and President Eisenhower want to plunge the world into war to maintain profits now that the Korean conflict is becoming part of history.

This report to the Socialist International was virtually written by the British Socialists.

THROUGH all this comes a strange coalition of the extremes — Churchill and the Socialists.

Both want to deal with Russia and China.

Both want Red trade to revive Britain.

Both at the moment are pacifying Russia whether the U.S. approves or not — which is what Churchill personally told DeGasperri before the Italian fall from power.

The time has come, it seems to me, to ask our "friends" in Western Europe to fish or cut bait. This is a mighty swift stream we're in.

Timber

This is an invitation to Mr. Joseph A. Dietrich to go out, climb a tree and pull it up after him.

Mr. Dietrich, president of the Connecticut Tree Protective Association, has started a "national campaign" for a coast-to-coast cleanup and removal from the American urban landscape of such familiar and well-loved trees as the apple, tulip, horse chestnut, catalpa, willow, poplar and certain kinds of elms.

Such trees are, says Mr. Dietrich—adding insult to injury—"weed trees," worthy only of extermination, and he intends to say so in the 1954 meeting of the National Shade Tree Conference.

THESE ARE strong words, aimed at innocent trees, just standing there taking no part in the conversation at the time Mr. Dietrich sounded off.

This man, if you want one woman's opinion, is inciting to riot. The above named trees are not going to take this lying down.

And above and beyond that, they have friends in powerful powerful places. There are millions of Americans who will not stand idly by and see old pals lashed and destroyed without lifting a hand, preferably with a brick in it.

I EXPECT this nation to echo with the resounding words of George Pope Morris:

"Woodman, spare that tree, Touch not a single bough,

"In youth it sheltered me, And I'll protect it now," Mr. Dietrich will soon learn that attacking the apple tree is dangerous game, as dangerous as attacking motherhood or baseball.

Would this Connecticut Yankee destroy, root and branch, the source of apple pie "as American as—," apple jelly, apple butter, apple cider, apple jack, apple strudel, apple sauce, apple pancakes and brown betty?

Woodman, spare that fruitful apple.

The source of jelly and jack. Drop, pray, that double-headed ax.

Forebear, forebear, we beg, to hack!

IF ANYTHING happens to the catalpa tree, I shall hold Mr. Dietrich personally accountable. I played under the shade of one as a child.

It was the first tree my grand-father Callaway planted after he cleared the sage brush from the Idaho homestead granted him by President Chester A. Arthur.

In the spring, its snowy blossoms smelled like all the perfumes of Araby, and in summer it gave generous shade in a barren country.

MANY a pioneer loved the catalpa because, like the willow and the poplar, it provided a quick windbreak in winter and shade in summer.

Woodman, spare that old catalpa.

Planted midst the green alfalfa.

It ain't doing any harm. Still abiding on the farm.

"Only God can make a tree," and that includes the willow, the first tree to show the green hand of spring as winter fades.

By Inez Robb

HOW PAPA used to watch for that trace of green!

And when that trace appeared, papa came home with a handful of little boughs to make for us children shrill, high willow whistles, the true pipes of pan.

Woodman, spare the willow that weeps,

What makes it lacrymose? It's sad because so many creeps.

Would fell it by the gross. For shame, Mr. Dietrich! Go climb that tree.

Meat Grinders Aid Oyster Production

ILWACO, Wash. (AP)—The love life of the oyster is getting a boost here—in meat grinders.

Oysters in Willapa Bay aren't reproducing fast enough to suit local growers so they're grinding them up by the thousands of bushels.

The grinding mixes sperm and ova and, when the "hash" is strewn on the bay, oyster larvae form in large numbers from the fertilized ova. Full-fledged oysters grow from the larvae.

Under normal conditions, growers have to depend upon currents in the bay to bring sperm and ova together.

Masculine Ego Needs Boost

Time for Men To Be Fashion Kings

NEW YORK (U) — Men need a Christian Dior, a bold fellow to restore the male feeling of being quite a guy.

Us guys are in a male quandry. We either have to expose more of our charms or retreat to the soft anonymity of the sleeping bag.

As I read the front line reports from the great style war in Paris, women don't know whether to throw away their corsets or keep them, elevate their skirts to their knees or go ahead and protect their thick upper ankles, expose their bosoms more or try to throw another layer on those they have rented or bought.

It seems to me that in this moment of feminine doubt men should move in and take over their old peacock strut. Let man again be king of fashions, as he once was.

I do not advocate long stockings, tight pants, and lace at the throat, although George Washington and Thomas Jefferson were robust and masculine in such attire. As a matter of recent history, some people feel that a gent doesn't represent his sex fully unless he has worn khaki. That's unfair, because a lot couldn't.

It might just as well be the other way around. Why shouldn't a woman feel uneasy if she has never worn the uniform of her country?

That is the pattern of some nations. Certainly no woman who believes in equal rights can deny today how much happier her life will be if she has only won the approval of a lady top sergeant for the way she can strip down a machine gun or make a bed.

That used to be the thing in the Army that separated the men from the boys. Why in days to come shouldn't it be the test that separates the girls from the women?

The problem for men is to win equal rights in the world of fashions. For example, why shouldn't women worry about how far we bare our chests? Wouldn't they fret about this problem if men were courageous enough to make it a problem?

Same thing at the other end. Short or long pants. A man ordinarily has his pants just long enough so that he tramps on them if his rubber heels wear down.

If you see a guy with his cuffs above his ankles, you automatic are sure that either he went to Princeton or he got caught out in the rain with a cheap suit.

Maybe it's time for us to dazzle our girls. Show that thin gray hair on the lean but vibrant chest, expose the male fatted calf. Naturally, since the girls never bare their bay windows we don't have to unzip ours.

The main idea is to stir the girls up by showing them that men have their fashions too. Let's show 'em that while knighthood is always in flower—it can change its blooms. They've taken men for granted too long.

Think how you could confuse your wife by wearing the cousin of the hat she confused you with!

Naval ROTC Students Take Training Trip

Two Marion men are on summer midshipman training cruises at sea.

They are Midshipman 3-C James L. Larsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence H. Larsen at 290 S. Grand Ave., who is aboard the light cruiser USS Worcester, and Midshipman 1-C Richard N. Bechtel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard L. Bechtel of 361 Windsor St. He is aboard the escort vessel USS Peterson.

Both students at Ohio State University, they are among approximately 1,580 Midshipmen from 27 colleges and universities who are participating in Cruise Baker, which includes the battleship Iowa, the light cruiser Worcester, three destroyers, five escort vessels, two oilers and a high speed transport.

The cruiser Worcester, along with an oiler and five escort vessels including the Peterson, were at Bergen, Norway from July 27 to Aug. 1 and later dropped anchor at Copenhagen, Denmark, from Aug. 3-10. The other ships were at Edinburgh, Scotland, and Oslo, Norway, during the same periods. The ships were to rendezvous today and then proceed to Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. They are to arrive there Aug. 26 and during a five-day stay there will conduct gunnery exercises before departing on Aug. 31 for Norfolk, Va. They are slated to arrive there Sept. 3 and then the men will report back to school.

PAPPY'S BACK. Frank (Pappy) Noel, Associated Press photographer who was a captive of the Communists for 32 months, is all smiles as he hops out of the truck which brought him to freedom in the fifth exchange of POWs at Panmunjom. Noel told of three attempts he made to escape his captors and how he spent 42 days in solitary confinement.

Returned POW From Toledo Describes Brutal Punishment

FREEDOM VILLAGE, Korea — A nifty Ohioan, newly returned from Communist captivity, fought his Chinese guards rather than attend a "germ warfare" propaganda lecture — and miraculously survived the brutal punishment that ensued.

That was the story of Pfc. Leonard Brewton of 3523 Chase St., Toledo, Ohio.

"It was on Sept. 18, 1952. I was ordered to go to a germ warfare lecture. I refused.

"A Chink guard came and again ordered me to go. Again I said I would not. He ordered me to snap to attention. I told him to go to hell.

They then hauled me out in the yard and one Chinese jumped me. He kicked me in the shins. I wasn't taking that from anybody, so I kicked him back.

"Three more of them jumped me. We fought. One started hitting me with a chunk of wood and I ran back to my area (compound). They came and got me and threw me in what looked like the vault of an old bank.

"I was left there for three days. They did not give me any covers. It was so cold I could not sleep. They then put me in a jail for 20 days, again without covers.

"One night about midnight, six Chinks came in and ordered me to stand.

"One held a gun on me while the other five beat and kicked me. One stabbed me in the arm with a bayonet. Then they took my clothes away and left me.

"My feet froze. I could not walk good for three weeks, and as soon as I could walk they put me on hard labor.

"If this is going in the papers, tell my folks that my feet are all right now and that I am not crippled or hurt. There is nothing wrong with me now.

"I could have licked that whole damned bunch if it had not been for the guy with the gun. The Chinks are not worth a damn as fighters. I'd like another chance at them for all they did to me and

Religion Saved Me, Freed Ohioan Says

FREEDOM VILLAGE (U) — A Columbus, Ohio, sergeant came back from Red captivity today and said he owes a "great debt to my religion" for pulling him through.

Sgt. Benjamin Conley, 29, captured while with the 2nd Division, said he feels "an over-abundance of joy."

Conley, a Baptist, explained how his religious devotion baffled the Communists.

He said a Chinese guard once asked him:

"Who is this man you're speaking of? Do you think your God can save you now?"

Conley continued:

"I told him any time when there's trouble God will always come through for me and after 32 months and 10 hard days he came through."

On another occasion, Conley said, the Chinese asked him: "What organization do you belong to?"

"One made 2,000 years ago," Conley replied.

"Who runs it?" the Chinese asked.

"God," answered Conley, and added:

"They looked at me kind of funny."

Red High Command Closes Ranks

Malenkov Has Won Bitter Kremlin Power Battle, Experts in U.S. Believe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Premier Georgi Malenkov has successfully weathered a grim power struggle inside the Kremlin and now stands virtually unchallenged as Russia's ruler.

This, at least, is the carefully considered view of top American foreign affairs experts who have been watching developments within the Soviet Union since Premier Stalin's death.

Active support by powerful Red army leaders, they said, probably was a deciding factor in maintaining Malenkov's power despite widespread uncertainty after the sudden purge of Deputy Premier Lavrenty Beria.

It would be no surprise to these American experts if in the coming weeks Malenkov's most prominently mentioned rival, Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, and his defense minister, Marshal Nikolai Bulganin, publicly avow their loyalty to Malenkov.

A closing of ranks within the Soviet high command, in their view, does not rule out potential unrest within Russia and the satellite world later. But it does plainly indicate to them that the sleepy-eyed Malenkov now is definitely top man.

The conclusion stems partly from the tone and content of Malenkov's speech last Saturday to the Soviet parliament. He scolded and criticized Communist party chiefs generally and talked like a man completely confident of his position.

The United States and Britain, it was learned, have added information which supports this view. No authoritative American official would say whether they took at face value Malenkov's broad hint Saturday that Russia has mastered production of the hydrogen bomb.

Tending to support his claim, however, is an unexplained 92 per cent increase in the Russian budget's "other expenditures" category which usually shows how much Moscow intends to spend on atomic weapons and similar secret projects.

American experts, after analyzing the Soviet budget figures, concluded that, instead of cutting down on military spending—as Moscow would have the world believe—it is actually increasing its military budget by about 25 per cent.

Specifically these officials deduced that Malenkov has allocated some 30 billion rubles in the 1953 calendar year for atomic and hydrogen bomb developments. There is no official exchange rate for the ruble, but it generally is figured at about 4 to $1.

Morrow Schools List Vacancies

Special to the Star
MT. GILEAD — Ten teaching vacancies still exist in Morrow County schools with the opening of most schools about a month away.

Several teachers were hired during the past two weeks to reduce the number of vacancies. Corn Expected To Join Cotton In Quota Group

WASHINGTON — Corn—the raw material for meats, dairy and poultry products—may join wheat and cotton today as a surplus problem for the federal government and farmers.

A general crop report to be released today will give the latest official estimate of the size of this year's corn crop. Should it exceed 3,400,000,000 bushels, crop production control measures would be indicated for 1954.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson already has invoked rigid marketing quotas on next year's wheat crop because this year's production, coupled with carry-over supplies, created a surplus as defined by farm law.

Farmers will vote in a nationwide referendum Friday on wheat sales quotas. Approval by at least two-thirds of those voting would be required before the quotas could be made effective.

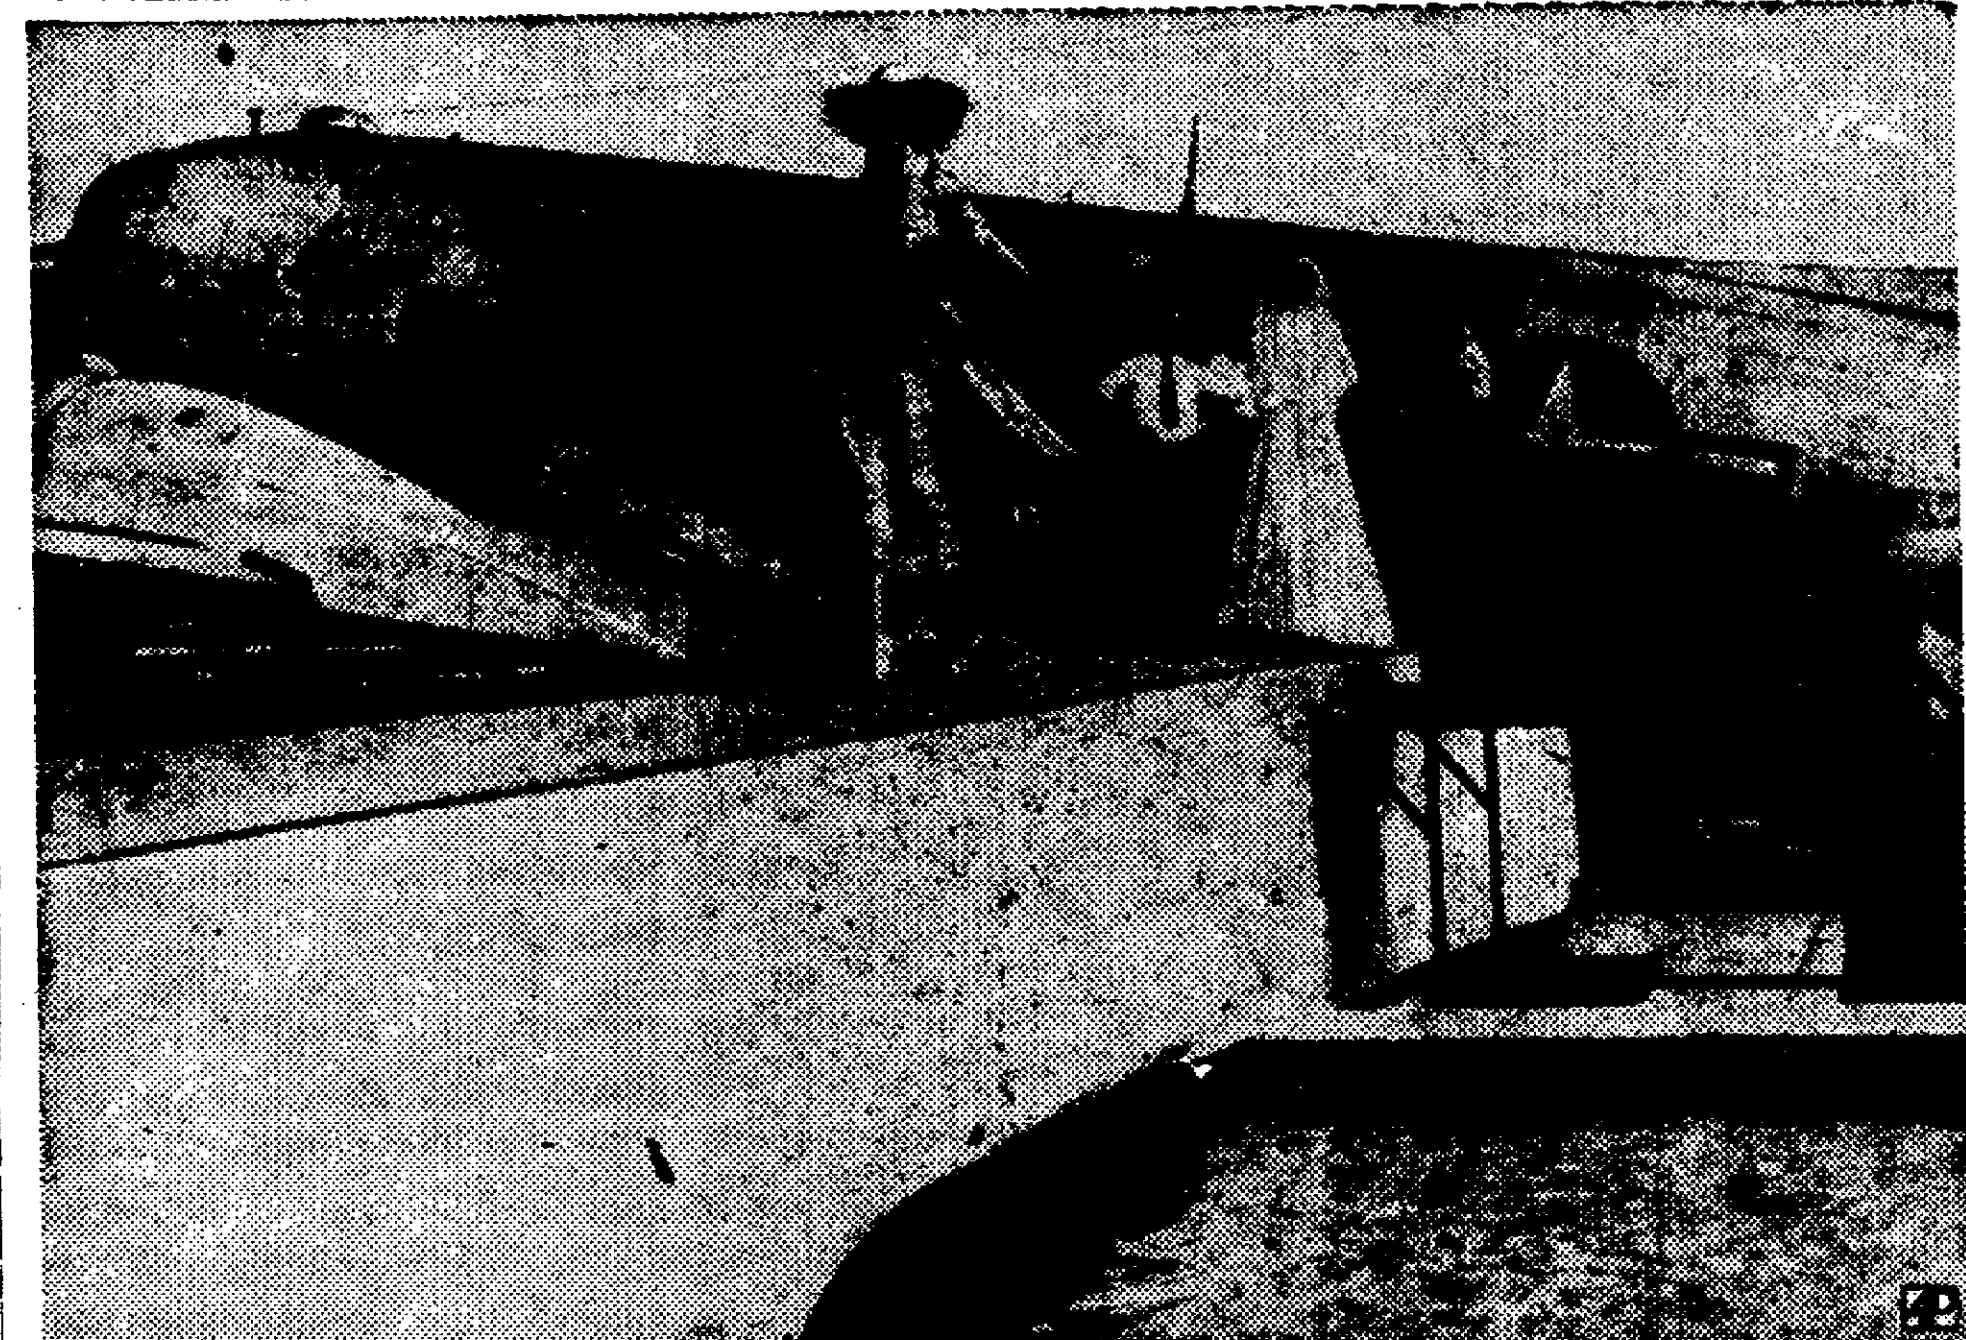

A forecast of a 14,605,000-bale cotton crop yesterday put that crop in the legal surplus class. If by Oct. 15 the cotton estimate is above 12 million bales, Benson would be required to invoke quotas on next year's production and submit them to a grower referendum by Dec. 15.

Austin's Bell employees voted to go back to work today pending negotiations for installation of air-conditioning facilities.

There was no indication when the other employees would return.

Malenkov Aims Clear

Soviets Intend To Keep Germany Out of EDC

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia's Premier Malenkov got a lot of mileage out of his two-hour speech to the Supreme Soviet.

He pushed any hope for a German settlement further into the dim future and used the German issue to try to drive a wedge between France and its Western allies.

This was in addition, among other things, to promising the Russian people a better living standard and suggesting that Russia may have the hydrogen bomb.

His statement about Germany was a kind of climax to a series of events which got world attention for months.

Eisenhower in his April 16 speech to the American Society of Russia to prove any peaceful intentions it might have by deeds. As an example, he suggested Russian agreement to a free, united Germany.

British Prime Minister Churchill quickly applauded this speech as "massive and magnificent." Almost a month later, May 11, Churchill made a sensational speech of his own in the House of Commons.

He proposed a conference on the highest level among the big powers, meaning himself, Eisenhower, Malenkov and whoever would be head of the French government at the time.

Eisenhower seemed to think this was rushing things. Before any meeting with the Russians he suggested a meeting of himself, Churchill and the head of the French government. They then could agree on what they would discuss with the Russians.

This meeting, planned for Bermuda this summer, was postponed indefinitely when Churchill had to rest from fatigue. Then the United States, Britain and France decided their foreign ministers should meet.

So Secretary of State Dulles and the foreign ministers of France and Britain met here in July. At the end of their session they invited Russia's Foreign Minister Molotov to meet with them somewhere later.

In its invitation to the Russians, this country made plain what it wanted to discuss: unification of Germany and free elections in Germany, which the united German people could choose a government for the whole country.

There could be no real peace until there was controlled disarmament, this country said, but before that could happen there should be a settlement on Germany.

On Aug. 4 the United States received a Russian note which seemed to say they'd be willing to talk about Germany but suggested the big thing to discuss BRINGING IN THE RICE. Undulating line of women pickers, the "mondine," moves through rice field at Vercelli harvesting the annual crop in Italy's fertile Po Valley.

was "measures to reduce international tensions."

Reducing international tensions might mean so many things that the State Department experts in this kind of talk still had their microscopes on the Russian note when Malenkov made his speech last Saturday.

Malenkov spelled out what it meant: this country's armament program and military alliances.

He cited the North Atlantic Alliance by name. He showed he wanted the West to abandon the idea of having Germany in the West European Defense Community, an arrangement still to be put into effect under which Germany could have troops in a unified West European army.

And Malenkov made it pretty clear he wants a disarmed Germany, presumably if it is ever united.

A disarmed Germany would be like a race track across which the Russians could dash unopposed to attack the West. But a rearmament, if it allied with the West, would be a major obstacle to any Russian aggression.

At the same time, a rearmament Germany, if it started on new military adventures of its own, could be as much of a threat to the West as to Russia. Malenkov emphasized that, particularly because it's a possibility which has bothered the French.

So he played on French fears and urged the French to shake the United States and snuggle close to Russia.

Epworth Circle Leaders Will Meet Wednesday

A women's meeting Wednesday at 1 p.m. at Epworth Methodist Church will be for chairmen and vice chairmen of WSCS circles. Plans for the year will be made, incorporating suggestions brought back from the Ohio Conference Lakeside School of Missions held the last week in July.

Mrs. J. F. Neidhart was delegate from Epworth Church, and attending also were Mrs. J. H. Clark, Mrs. Carson Shetterly, and Mrs. W. D. McGee. They were among 580 registered for the school and were among 105 attending from 32 churches in the Lima District. The total enrollment was an increase over last year's number, it was reported.

Theme of the meeting at the church Wednesday will be "A Sower Went Forth." The approved study for the year is the "Life and Task of the Church Around the World." First general meeting of the Epworth WSCS will be Sept. 10, at which time the pastor, Rev. W. C. Eyster, will speak on "The Woman's Society of Christian Service in the Total Church Program."

July Fire Loss Set at $17,065

Marion Iron, Metal Blaze Most Serious

Estimated fire losses in Marion last month were some $17,000 higher than for July last year, according to a monthly report of fire department activities issued today by Fire Chief Owen A. Siffritt.

Total loss in 55 fire calls last month was set at some $17,065 compared with $133 loss in 38 fires last year, Chief Siffritt said.

Most destructive of the fires was one at the Marion Iron and Metal Co. junkyard at 460 W. Center St. which Paul E. Holycross of 429 Waterloo St. confessed he set July 15. Estimated loss in this fire was $10,000.

Fighting last month's fires required use of 5,650 feet of 2½ inch hose, 2,350 feet of one-inch hose, and 100 feet of 1½-inch hose. In addition firemen used buckets of water four times, brooms four times, garden hose once, smothered two fires, used fire extinguishers twice, gas detector once, hand pumps once, and raised 105 feet of ladder.

Total cost of department operation for the month was about $12,200 with $11,406 of this amount going to pay salaries of firemen.

The remaining approximately $790 was used for miscellaneous purchases, the report said.

Worked at Lima

Minor League Struggles Gave DiSalle Top Thrill

By MICHAEL V. DISALLE
Former Price Stabilizer and
One-Time Toledo Mayor

TOLEDO, Ohio (U-P)—Participating in football, basketball and baseball as a youngster produced many happy moments. Later on golf and bowling furnished their share.

But there never will be anything to compare with my experiences as president of a Class D professional baseball club—going into a town, building a park then having hundreds of aspiring young players pounce on you looking for a tryout.

If we could have used them all at once, we might have done all right because in mass formation a fly ball couldn't drop safely. But even in Class D the rules are the same—you can use only nine men.

We lost our first seven games, then won one. We lost 14 more before our next win so we stood at one win and 21 defeats at one time. We always had three ball clubs—one there, one going and one coming.

We played one game with just two baseballs—two foul balls in a row and the game was held up until a ball could be returned. One rookie reported by paying his way into the game and sitting in the stands watching the game while we were desperately looking for him.

In one game, after a questionable decision, the players ganged up on an umpire. One held his finger under the ump's nose and asked: "What makes you think you're an umpire?"

The arbiter calmly replied: "I'm not. If I were I'd be up there."

Bob Porterfield Hurls Eighth Shutout

Piersall Robs Nats' Star Of No-Hitter; Braves Win

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

Bob Porterfield's "bad dream" team is growing. He's added another outfielder and may soon have a full lineup.

Porterfield, whose family named him Erwin Coolidge and then re-named and called him Bob at the age of 6, is a stylish Washington right-hander who is specializing this season in pitching shutouts.

Out of 17 complete games he has blanked the opposition eight times. That's more than any other pitcher has accomplished in either circuit since Bob Lemon's 10 in 1948.

He hurled No. 8 last night, a sparkling one-hitter against the Boston Red Sox which he won 2-0. In the only other action, the Milwaukee Braves whittled half a game of the Brooklyn Dodgers' National League lead by whipping St. Louis 8-2. The Dodgers still lead by 6½ games.

The lone Boston safety was a third-inning single by right fielder Jim Piersall.

That blow put Piersall in Porterfield's "bad dream" lineup, which also includes shortstop Eddie Joost of Philadelphia and second baseman Bobby Avila and left fielder Dale Mitchell of Cleveland. These are the four men who have spoiled no-hitters for the shutout ace since he has won a jinx tag ever since he hit the majors in 1948.

Mitchell ruined a hitless game during Porterfield's freshman year. Avila broke up one in 1951. Joost cracked the spell at Philadelphia exactly three months ago. Piersall put the blight on Porterfield's 29th birthday celebration.

"It was the only ball I threw that didn't go where I wanted it to go," the pitcher said after the game. The victory was the 14th of the year for Porterfield, more than he's ever won before in the big time. He's lost nine.

Piersall got his hit to start the third inning. He walked in the ninth. He was the only Boston baserunner.

Two other pitchers with one-hitters to their credit this season—Warren Spahn and Harvey Haddix—were involved in the St. Louis-Milwaukee contest. Spahn was in form but Haddix wasn't. He gave up 10 hits before bowing out in the fifth inning.

Milwaukee scored once in the first inning, then added five in the second on five hits and two costly errors. The Cards made three miscues in all and every one of them led directly to a run.

The victory was No. 15 for Spahn who's lost five.

Lack of Base Hits Big Blow To Moundsman

WASHINGTON (U-P)—Bob Porterfield pitched a one-hitter last night for his third consecutive shutout and his eighth whitewash job of the year—but he wasn't happy.

"I didn't get any hits," he mourned. "I'll bet I'm not even hitting 300 any more."

The Washington right-hander perked up a bit, though, when he was advised that his batting average stood at .308 after last night's activities. Then he turned to the ball game.

"Quite a birthday present, wasn't it?" Porterfield grinned. The big fellow from Belleville, N. J., celebrated his 29th birthday in throwing his one-hitter at the Boston Red Sox. The shutout stretched his innings of scoreless pitching to 29 straight.

The spoiler was Jim Piersall, young Boston right fielder who socked a slider into center field to start the third inning.

"It was the only ball I threw that didn't go where I wanted it to go," Porterfield said. "I knew it was too high the minute I let go of it."

Piersall was the only Boston batter to reach base. He got to first again to start the ninth inning via the only walk surrendered by Porterfield.

That brought on some high drama as Ted Williams went in to bat for shortstop Ted Lepcio. It was Williams' third pinch hitting assignment since he was released from the Marines and the fans recalled that he hit a home run the last time up.

Williams took a ball and then laced a wicked foul past first. He nicked another foul and then took a mighty cut and went down swinging.

Porterfield said, "Williams didn't frighten me."

SHORT SPORTS

By John Short

Lincoln Park will be the scene of the Mid-Ohio League baseball tournament late this month and early in September. The tourney will open Aug. 23 and will be wound up Sept. 13.

The league, in its first year of operation, has some of the toughest pitching found in central Ohio baseball.

Heading the list is Marion's Don Johnson, who hurls for the Green Camp Elevator.

Just out of the Army, Don is bidding his time this season before reporting for further duty in organized baseball.

He has been a mainstay of the Green Camp mound staff. Prior to entering the Army, Don was a member of the Brooklyn Dodgers' farm chain and had worked his way into a Class A starting role.

Another Mid-Ohio hurler is awaiting next season when he will make his entry into the pro ranks. He is Orlen Hemmery who has worked for Forest. Earlier this season he inked a contract with the Cincinnati Redlegs and will report next April.

At least two other pitchers in the league are being considered by the Philadelphia Athletics as a result of their showing at a recent tryout camp at Galion.

The double elimination tournament will open Aug. 23 with three games. Two games will be played on Aug. 30, Sept. 6, 7, and 13. The opening action will begin at 3 p.m. with Forest meeting Nevada. Belle Center will take on Alger in the second game and Green Camp battles Marcellus in a night game at 8 p.m. LaRue drew a first round bye.

Belle Center capped the first round title but Forest is leading the loop now with a 4-1 second round record. Green Camp and Marcellus will stage a tourney preview Sunday at Morral. The two teams will meet in a double-header at 1 p.m.

Biggie Munn, Drew Speak at Banquet For Grid Coaches

CANTON, Ohio (U-P)—Canton will hold a civic banquet tonight to honor the 250 coaches here for the North-South Ohio scholastic football game Friday night.

Coaches Clarence (Biggie) Munn of Michigan State and Harold Drew of Alabama will be the principal speakers, with Fritz Howell, Ohio Associated Press sports editor, acting as toastmaster.

Last year, Vernon finished with 143 hits, 33 doubles, 10 homers and 80 runs batted in. So far in 1953, he has compiled 146 hits, 34 doubles, 10 home runs and 77 RBIs.

In the National League, Monte Irvin of the New York Giants leads with a .339 average. The 34-year-old outfielder, who sprained an ankle last Sunday, picked up four points last week while Red Schoendienst, his closest competitor, dropped 12 points to .333.

Minnie Muroso of the Chicago White Sox and George Kell of the Boston Red Sox both went into a tailspin last week and are tied for third with .316 apiece. Minoso dropped nine points and Kell six.

Brooklyn's Carl Furillo moved into third place in the National with a .329 average. He gained two points on nine hits in 25 at bats.

Gus Zernial of the Philadelphia Athletics blasted out four home runs to wrest the American League homer lead from Cleveland's Al Rosen. He has 29 to Al's 27. Rosen continues to set the pace in RBIs with 92.

Marion Teams Break Even in Tourney Play

In district tournament action at Galion Monday night Faultless Rubber of Ashland dropped K and W Plumbing of Marion 11-3 and Garber Printers of Ashland dumped Sons of Herman of Mansfield 6-2 in two quarter final games. The third contest saw Smitty's All-Stars blast Osco, both of Marion 7-2.

Two singles, two walks, an error and a wild pitch gave Faultless a three-run lead in the first. A triple and a single gave them one more in the second and an error and four straight hits gave them five in the fourth. Their scoring spree was capped in the third when the catcher, Ed Farris lifted the ball out of the park.

K and W managed to score three in the fifth but it was little consolation to a team traveling behind a barrier of 11 runs. Rizzo accounted for the Marion score when he doubled with the bases loaded. Bud England suffered the loss for the plumbers.

In the third game the first three innings were "feeling out" innings as Osco and Smitty's held each other in a deadlock. Smitty's surged ahead in the fourth when they finally managed to score two to Osco's one. In the fifth Fritz Walters homered for Smitty's for a comfortable lead. The winner scored three in the sixth.

An error and a single by Street accounted for Osco's run in the third and a walk, a wild pitch and a single gave them the other. Bob Makeever was the winner for Smitty's as they used two catchers, Max Roseberry and Chuck Reed. Jess Harris was the loser for Osco. Both teams committed two errors.

Two games are on tap tonight. In the opener at 8 p.m., the American Tower Vets of Shelby will meet Gordon Rupp of Mansfield. Smitty's All-Stars will meet Blue's Furniture of Upper Sandusky in the nightcap.

Vernon Grabs American Loop Batting Lead

NEW YORK (U-P)—When the ballots are counted for baseball's comeback-of-the-year award this fall, Mickey Vernon of the Washington Senators is certain to be well up in the voting.

Vernon batted only .251 in 1952 and, at 35, it was believed he had seen his best years, one of them (1946) when he led the American League in batting with .353.

But the veteran first sacker has been one of the real surprises this season. He currently holds a 15-point edge in the junior circuit hitting race with a .335 mark.

Runner-up Al Rosen of the Cleveland Indians has .320.

Last year, Vernon finished with 143 hits, 33 doubles, 10 homers and 80 runs batted in. So far in 1953, he has compiled 146 hits, 34 doubles, 10 home runs and 77 RBIs.

In the National League, Monte Irvin of the New York Giants leads with a .339 average. The 34-year-old outfielder, who sprained an ankle last Sunday, picked up four points last week while Red Schoendienst, his closest competitor, dropped 12 points to .333.

Minnie Muroso of the Chicago White Sox and George Kell of the Boston Red Sox both went into a tailspin last week and are tied for third with .316 apiece. Minoso dropped nine points and Kell six.

Brooklyn's Carl Furillo moved into third place in the National with a .329 average. He gained two points on nine hits in 25 at bats.

Gus Zernial of the Philadelphia Athletics blasted out four home runs to wrest the American League homer lead from Cleveland's Al Rosen. He has 29 to Al's 27. Rosen continues to set the pace in RBIs with 92.

Milwaukee's Eddie Mathews tops the National League in home runs with 36 and Roy Campanella of Brooklyn has driven in the most runs, 104.

Classic Set Wednesday

Del Cameron Courts Lady Luck as Post Time Nears For 28th Trotting Event

GOSHEN, N. Y. (U-P)—Lady Luck usually rides with the winner of the Hambleton stakes and little Del Cameron of Pinehurst, N. C., hopes she's beside him in the sulky tomorrow when 23 horses take off in the famous hayseed derby at Good Time Park.

Cameron, 33, will be driving the favorite, Newport Star, in this 28th Hambletonian, with the richest purse and largest field since the trotting classic for 3-year-olds was inaugurated in 1926. The purse will total $117,117.98 with the winner netting $63,126.59.

"I think we have a chance," said Cameron, who was really going all out with the predictions. Del is one of the most pessimistic guys around a harness racing track.

As stablemates, Newport Star has Newport Mascot and Newport Champ, but the latter has done little this season. The entry is listed as the 8 to 5 early favorite.

Cameron drew the post positions himself, and Lady Luck was with him there. He got the No. 3 spot for Newport Star, and No. 8 for Newport Mascot, a pretty formidable horse, too. Newport Champ got the No. 23 slot.

He listed the Castleton Farm's Victory's First, the Allwood Stable's Kimberly Kid, and Saunders Mills' Elby Hanover as the ones he has to beat.

Indians Meet White Sox in Fight for 2nd

CLEVELAND (U-P)—Assuming the New York Yankees won't break a dozen legs in the stretch, the American League's battle for second place opens here tonight.

Participating in this contest, practically the only one left in the league, will be the Chicago White Sox, seven games behind the Yanks, and the Cleveland Indians, four games behind the White Sox.

This is only a three-game series, so the Indians can't possibly move ahead of the White Sox.

Bob Lemon will start for the Tribe in quest of his 16th victory. Opposing him will be Connie Johnson, who has won one and lost one since Chicago brought him up from Charleston recently.

The Indians won a ball game last night, but it was of no importance to the standings. The 8-6 victory came in an exhibition game here with the Brooklyn Dodgers. The game drew a crowd of 39,131 fans and earned about $45,000 for the Cleveland Baseball Federation's sandlot fund.

Harry Simpson was the star, driving in three runs with a homer and a triple off the Dodgers' loser, Joe Black.

Charles is expected to scale 190 pounds to Valdes' 210 and hopes to prove he is a worthy opponent for the winner of the Rocky Marciano-Roland Lestazza match.

Valdes won the Cuban heavyweight title three weeks ago when he knocked out Orelia Agramonte.

MARION MAN ARRESTED
UPPER SANDUSKY — Otis Hackworth, 24, of Marion, paid a total of $34.21 in fine and costs before Justice of the Peace L. C. Schoenberger here on charges of operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license. Hackworth was apprehended early Sunday morning by members of the Wyandot County sheriff's department, about three miles south of Mansfield after a resident of that area had reported him sleeping in his auto in the driveway of his home.

The Castleton Farm of Lexington, Ky., also has Abbasong in the race, while Kimberly Kid from the Allwood Stable, Far Hills, N. J., has a stablemate, Simpson Hanover.

Kimberly Kid is 3 to 1, but drew a bad post position, No. 17 in the second tier. Ten horses will start in the first tier, 10 in the second and three in the third. Elby Hanover also got an outside post, No. 20, while Victory's First got a break with the No. 7 spot.

Clark Metal Builders Win Pony Contests

Clark Metal Products edged VFW 4-3 and G & G Builders defeated Alloy Cast Steel 7-1 in Pony League action Monday night at Lincoln Park.

Tonight's schedule has VFW meeting Alloy in the opener at 6:15 p.m., and Clark opposing G & G in the second tilt.

Corbin, Clark hurler, set down VFW, first round champs, without a hit for six innings and then almost lost the game when he allowed three runs on four hits in the final frame.

The winners, who tapped Harold Jones of VFW for five hits, scored twice in the first on two hits and two more runs in the sixth without benefit of a safety.

Bob Lister set down Alloy on three hits in the opener in pitching G & G to the win. The losers reached him for two hits in the second when they got their lone run.

GI's Who Died In Red Camps Will Be Listed

Pentagon Checking List of 1,050, Most Believed Americans

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon is speeding the identification of Americans on the list of 1,050 non-Korean captives reported by the Reds to have died in Communist prison camps.

The list, supplied in accordance with the armistice terms, reached Washington over the weekend.

But the Defense Department said public identification will be withheld—and even the total number of Americans listed—until exhaustive checks have been completed and all families of the men notified.

Red China's ePiping radio station reported last night that 1,050 non-Koreans had died in captivity. It also said the United Nations Command had reported 8,440 Communist prisoners who had died while in U. N. hands.

Even if all of the dead prisoners reported by the Reds were Americans, which is highly unlikely, the number falls far short of the 8,705 U. S. servicemen listed by the Pentagon as missing in action.

Before making public the names of Americans reported to have died in Red camps, military authorities here say they want to be as sure there are no duplications, involving men previously reported to be dead.

The big Dayton race is among eight candidates for three city commission posts.
